Reddy (Retired), Chairman and two other Members and the Advisory Board shall submit its report to Govt., within seven weeks from the date of detention under Section 11(1) of the said Act. The above said case was placed before the Advisory Board for its consideration and to submit its report to Government, under Section 11 (1) of the said Act, vide reference 3rd read above. The case was reviewed by the Advisory Board on 06.02.2015 and after having heard the detenu besides his wife, Smt Chinthapalli Manju and perused the representation of the wife of detenu and the Investigating Officers and also upon perusing the grounds of detention and the connected records, has reported that in its opinion, "there is sufficient cause for the detention of the detenu, Sri Chintapalli Lovaraju, S/o Suryanarayana, aged 30 years, R/o Kandrakota Village, Peddapuram Mandal, East Godavari District";

4. AND WHEREAS, the Government on careful examination of the entire record, observed that the detenu, Sri Chintapalli Lovaraju, S/o Suryanarayana, aged 30 years, R/o Kandrakota Village, Peddapuram Mandal, East Godavari District, was involved in as many as in 5 (Five) cases, registered under section 7-A r/w. sec.8(e) of A.P. Prohibition (Amendment) Act,1997 by the Prohibition & Excise Station Peddapuram. Out of the five cases registered against him, he was caught red handed while in possession of I. D liquor. The Government Chemical Examiner, who analyzed the samples of seized contraband has opined that the samples are found to be "illicitly distilled liquor, unfit for human consumption and injurious to health". It is further observed that though the individual was arrested and remanded to judicial custody, he did not mend his activities, and even after his release on bail, he resorted to similar bootlegging offences repeatedly. The detaining authority, having satisfied that consumption of such I.D. liquor is hazardous to public health and prejudicial to maintenance of public order and having felt that the cases booked against the accused under the AP Prohibition Act failed to curb his illegal and dangerous activities, has passed the detention order to prevent him from further indulging in such offences in the interest of public at large by invoking the provisions under Act 1 of 1986. The object of the Act, is to prevent recurrence of the offences, which affect the public health and public order. The Advisory Board, after review of the case, has opined that there is sufficient cause for the detention of the detenu. In view of the involvement of individual in series of cases repeatedly at regular intervals for purchase and possession of ID liquor for the purpose of sale, which is illicitly distilled and injurious to health, the detenu deserves for detention for a maximum period as provided under sec. 13 of the Act.

5. NOW, THEREFORE, after due consideration of the report of the Advisory Board and the material available on record, Government, in exercise of the powers conferred under Sub-Section (1) of Section 12 read with Section 13 of the said Act, hereby confirm the Order of Detention made by the Collector & District Magistrate, East Godavari District, Kakinada in the reference 1st read above, as approved in the G.O. 2nd read above and direct that the detention of Sri Chintapalli Lovaraju, S/o Suryanarayana, aged 30 years, R/o Kandrakota Village, Peddapuram Mandal, East Godavari District, be continued for a period of 12 (Twelve) months from the date of his detention, i.e. 22.01.2015.
